Reviews and Other Information: Thomma Grindstaffs work is more slowly paced and introspective than much in the way of todays romances, yet the many layers of depth here have appeal. The story is plausible, and the characters interaction and growth is both plausible and pleasurable. Grindstaffs work offers a certain insightful, even visceral understanding of the human heart. Long and Short ReviewsThe story and plot were very well written . . . Isaac and Aphra fall in love easily and quickly when he hires her to revamp his dull web site. They struggle through typical relationship woes: ex-spouses, children, communication issues, other people who want to interfere in the relationship. The biggest issue of the relationship is the 20-year age difference between them. The story really has you rooting for Aphra and Isaac to work everything out and to become a strong couple. You cant help but love...
