MOUNTAINTOP EXPERIENCE IN THE MIDST OF THE VALLEY

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 104 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 0.4in. This book is written by a broken woman during her husband's adultery and pending divorce. She had a choice to make to either remain angry and bitter or to depend on God to get her through the heartache. God is the only answer and He has provided her with His strength to forgive her husband. Although the divorce is still pending and outward signs appear that she remains in the valley, God has given her an overwhelming peace that He is in total control. God has taught her to live each day with Him as her focal point. She finally realizes that she does not need to know the future because God is in total control and He will carry her through anything. During this trial, she realizes how hardened society has become. Our current divorce rate, broken families, churches splitting, and so many hurts, are evidence of just how far we have turned away from God. However, it is NEVER too late with God. We need to examine our own hearts and turn back to God. It is time for a revival and it must start from within each of us. Despite all of the hurt in the world today, we can have total and complete faith that God will not only carry us through but He will also bring us to the mountaintop, if we let Him. Wendy Williams Bordelon graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from Louisiana State University in 1991. She graduated with a Master of Social Work degree from Grambling State University in 1995. She is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) and Board Approved Clinical Supervisor (BACS). She has two sons, Austin and Hayden. She resides in...
