Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Escape Under the Kenyan Moon begins as a passionate love story during the 1970 s between Carole, a petite blonde and blue eyed young woman, and Otieno Habembe a young black man from a primitive island in Lake Victoria between Kenya and Uganda. Otieno came to Ohio State University on a United Nations scholarship. It is the early 70 s, bi-racial relationships were not only rare but unacceptable to most people. She was disowned by her parents, shunned by some family and friends, and hated by many in society. Carole and Otieno rise above the prejudice through the passion and strength of their love for each other. Their life is wonderful despite the challenges, but there was a longing in Otieno s heart for the Africa he had left behind. Four years and two babies later, he can only hear the call of his native land. Otieno must take his family and return home. Although this would be a homecoming for Otieno, Carole would be giving up everything she knew except her husband and children. Her oldest daughter from an earlier marriage would be separated from her father by thousands of miles. The thought of leaving all that she knew was terrifying but the promise of a new life with the man and the children she loved gave her the courage to accept this decision. As the couple begin their new life, Carole falls in love again. The slow, easy paced culture, the beauty of the land, and the warmth of the African people capture her heart. Carole thrived in the simple lifestyle of Thika. Each day was a new adventure. Her alarm clock was the neighbor s...
