

Dog Eats Dog (Paperback)

By Niq Mhlongo

Kwela Books, South Africa, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 212 x 136 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Dingz is an average Wits student struggling with money, partying with his friends, picking up girls, skipping lectures, making up elaborate excuses for missing exams. A bright, articulate guy, Dingz and his circle of friends sit around drinking and discussing current affairs Aids, racism, South African politics and history in between some hair-raising adventures, like being kidnapped by taxi-drivers, contracting gonorrhoea or trying to fake a death certificate. A constant backdrop is the subtle and not-so-subtle racism of the university, which threatens to exclude him financially. This is an authentic, witty slice-of-life set at the time of the first democratic elections, full of interesting perceptions and vivid descriptions, and well-drawn and believable characters. Dingz is an interesting and plausible chap intelligent and likeable, but no saint. His anger at racism is sometimes over-the-top but certainly not hard to understand, and his cynicism in using the race card is amusing. Sometimes he is unpleasant, sometimes silly Tippex-ing out an old name on a birthday card to give to his new girlfriend but frequently charming. A complex, multi-faceted personality, with plausible flaws and...
