THE SANDMAN: HIS SEA STORIES (YESTERDAY S CLASSICS) (PAPERBACK)

Yesterday s Classics, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Diantha W. Horne (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Twenty-one more stories about the sailing ship Industry and the lads who sailed on it, including many exciting adventures such as their encounters with porpoises, flying fish, and sharks. Sequel to THE SANDMAN: His Ship Stories by the same author. Third volume in a series of a stories created by a father to induce a certain little boy to go to sleep. For nearly three years his one listener heard them repeated many times, and his interest never flagged. As the first stories told, the farm stories, slowly grew in number, eventually to fill two volumes, they entirely displaced other stories, and that farm became as real in the mind of his listener as it was in fact when little John was driving the cows or planting the corn in the early part of the nineteenth century. Later came two more volumes about a ship and its voyages at sea, of which this volume is the latter, and a final volume on house building. Ideal for ages 7 to 9.
