Excerpt: . . . lies open to the Generality of People. 13 in the New Testament, that it is attended with a strong Degree of Internal Evidence, of which, by an unaccountable Omission, you take not the least Notice; and that what is most essential to the External Proof, lies within much less Compass than you seem to imagine, and is capable, if previous Precautions be taken in a proper Manner, of being opened to Persons of an ordinary Capacity, and understood by them, tho they have neither Ability nor Leisure for the Curiosities of learned Disquisition. For the Illustration of this, you must give me Leave to remind you, that both the MoJaick and Christian Dispensations have been much misrepresented, in Consequence of Mens taking their Notions of them, rather from the Conduct of their Professors, than from the Institutes of their respective Founders. To apply this to the...
