Have you ever really taken the time to think about what In really means? I've spent my whole life being In and trying to get In to various things: in a family, in a room, in trouble, in a good mood, in a group of friends, in a relationship, in a position of control, in the right restroom. You get my point. We are In and Out of things all the time. That is one of the reasons I find the phrase in Christ so fascinating. It doesn't mean what so many of my pursuits and experiences of In mean—that every In has a corresponding Out. Instead, in Christ is a totally secure and complete change of position and standing; and nothing, absolutely nothing, can change that standing. Once we are in Christ there is no Out. Here me loud and clear: We are not born in Christ or magically put there. We are born Out of relationship with God. But I'm getting ahead of myself....
