

Sources of Interest in High School English

---

By Charles Edward Jones

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 28 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1912 edition. Excerpt: . . . is not true of classics. Those who have read moderately have a wider range and give more intelligent opinions. In the earlier years girls prefer plots emphasizing patience; and many speak of some favorite novel as deep and mysterious; while boys look for action, at first physical and later moral. A large amount of cheap literature seems to paralyze and deaden opinion. Juvenile Fiction. --Girls read less juvenile fiction than boys do. Their line is continuously downward, and at the end of the third year they have practically finished. Boys seem to read more in the second than in the first year. This is, however, misleading and due to the second city, where the boys evidently had just heard of Barbours books and proceeded to make up for what they missed before. No attempt was made to separate good juvenile books from poor books....

READ ONLINE

[ 1.7 MB ]

Reviews

An exceptional publication and also the typeface applied was fascinating to learn. It normally will not expense excessive. Your life period will be transform once you comprehensive looking over this pdf.

-- Rachelle O'Connell

These sorts of ebook is the perfect publication accessible. I really could comprehended every little thing out of this created e ebook. I am very happy to inform you that this is basically the very best ebook i actually have study within my personal life and might be he finest pdf for ever.

-- Favian O'Kon